GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
CULTURE
LOK SABHA

UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:2994
ANSWERED ON:05.12.2016
Tourist Places as Heritage Sites
Reddy Shri Y. S. Avinash

Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Amaravati Development Authority of Andhra Pradesh has requested the Government to declare five Tourist Places in Andhra Pradesh as Heritage places;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the reaction of the Government thereto?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE, CULTURE AND TOURISM (INDEPENDENT CHARGE)

(DR. MAHESH SHARMA)

(a)&(b) Amaravati Development Authority has proposed five monuments to be declared as World Heritage Site by UNESCO, details of these sites are as under:

1. Gandikota Fort, Kadapa District
2. Chandragiri Fort, Chittoor District
3. Guntupalli Caves, West Godavari District
4. Kondaveedu Fort, Guntur District
5. Amaravati Maha Stupa, Guntur District

(c) Presently, none of the site is included in the Tentative List of World Heritage which is a prerequisite condition for inscription of a site on the World Heritage List.